Barbich Hooper King Dill Hoffman (BHK) is a full service accounting firm located in Bakersfield, California. For more than 30 years, BHK has offered a wide array of services to businesses and individuals, both domestic and international, including: tax planning and compliance; attestation, review and compilation services; business consulting; estate and trust planning; trustee services; international taxation; client accounting and bookkeeping;

controllership services; employee benefit plan audits; pension plan administration; litigation support; and IRS and FTB representation during audits. We service clients in a number of diverse industries, including agriculture, medical, not-for-profits, oil and energy, professional services, real estate and construction, and special districts.

While BHK offers the resources and expertise provided by many larger firms, we take pride in giving each individual client personal service. Our firm is dedicated to a high level of personal, pro-active service, and we take a proprietary interest in the success of our clients. This guiding philosophy, and the quality of our services, provides peace of mind which is rare in today's increasingly complex world.
